How do I fill out the absentee ballot application?
Fill in your name and the permanent address where you are registered to vote. If you are detained in jail or prison awaiting grand jury action or trial, or confined after you have been convicted for an offense that was not a felony, fill in the appropriate information in section E. Write the jail or prison address as the location where the ballot should be mailed, or designate a person to pick it up, or a person’s address to receive it in the mail for you.

If I register to vote, will I be called for jury duty?
The rolls of prospective jurors are compiled from a number of sources, so registering to vote does not necessarily mean that you will be called. Similarly, not registering to vote does not necessarily mean that you will not be called for jury duty. If you are called and feel that you cannot serve, jurors can often be excused for a valid health reason.

To obtain a voter registration form or absentee ballot application form, or to find out dates for the elections, for registering, for filing absentee ballot applications and submitting ballots:
• Call the NYS Board of Elections at 1-800-367-8683, or download the forms/calendar from the web site for the New York State Board of Elections (www.elections.ny.gov).
• Call, write to, or download forms/calendar from the web site for your local county board of elections. You can get their contact information from the NYS Board of Elections.
• Call your local League of Women Voters, or the League of Women Voters of New York State at 518-465-4162 or toll free at 1-866-598-6971, or go to our web site at http://www.lwvny.org/.

To check your voter registration status:
You should receive in the mail before the election a card that informs you of your polling place. If you do not receive such a card, call your local board of elections and ask them:
1. Am I registered to vote?
2. Is my registration status set to “Active”?
   If not, to what is it set?
3. Will my name appear in the polling place roll book on Election Day?

If you are not on the rolls at your polling place
If you believe you are registered to vote and are not on the rolls, ask for an “affidavit” (paper) ballot, and ask the poll worker for advisement about following up on your status. You are legally entitled to an affidavit (paper) ballot and must be given one.

Did you know you are able to register as an organ and tissue donor when you register to vote?
In 2009, New York became the first state to include an organ and tissue donor enrollment section on voter registration forms. Since inception, more than a quarter-million individuals have joined the New York State Donate Life Registry this way.
Transplantation is a remarkable success story. One organ and tissue donor can save up to eight lives through organ donation, and heal seventy-five more lives through tissue donation by restoring eyesight, helping fight infections in burn patients, and preventing the loss of mobility and disability. However, the need for donated organs and tissues continues to grow. There are nearly 115,000 people in the U.S. waiting for organ transplants, and about 9,400 of those people are waiting right here in New York State. Sadly, each year, approximately 6,000 people in the U.S. die waiting for an organ transplant that would have given them a second chance at life with their families.
By enrolling in the New York State Donate Life Registry, you are giving legal consent to the donation of your organs and tissues in the event of your death. You are authorizing the State Department of Health and Donate Life New York State access to the information as needed for the administration of the Registry and to federally regulated organ procurement organizations, New York State licensed eye and tissue banks and entities formally approved by the Commissioner at or near the time of your death.

YOUR RIGHT TO VOTE IN NEW YORK STATE

Individuals with Criminal Convictions or Detained in Jail or Prison

Voting is an important part of being a U.S. citizen. The people who are elected this year will make decisions about things that directly affect your life, your taxes, the education of your children and/or grandchildren, and changes in the laws of our state and nation. Voting is your chance to choose the decision makers and tell them what you want. To be eligible to vote in New York State, you must:

• be a United States citizen
• be 18-years old by the date of the general, primary or other election in which you want to vote
• live at your present New York State address at least 30 days before an election
• not be incarcerated for a felony conviction
• not be on parole for a felony conviction unless you are on parole and received a conditional voting restoration pardon, or have been issued a Certificate of Relief from Disabilities or Certificate of Good Conduct
• not claim the right to vote elsewhere
• have registered to vote
• not be currently adjudged incompetent or incapacitated to vote by order of a court

YOUR RIGHT TO VOTE

Can I vote in New York if I’m on probation?

Yes. If you are otherwise qualified to vote, anyone who is on probation, even if convicted of a felony, may register and vote in New York State.

How do I register to vote?

You need to fill out and submit a voter registration form. In 2019, you can register to vote as long as you are 18-years old by December 31, 2019. Beginning January, 2020, you can preregister when you are 16- or 17-years old; however, you cannot vote unless you are 18-years old by the date of the general, primary or other election in which you want to vote. You may preregister/register in person at your local board of elections or at any state agency participating in the National Voter Registration Act, on any business day throughout the year. You may preregister/register by mail. Forms are available from your county board of elections, town and city halls, post office, political parties, various state offices, and the League of Women Voters. Contact the League of Women Voters of New York State – 1-866-LWVNYST, the New York State Board of Elections – 1-800-FOR-VOTE, or your county Board of Elections to have a voter registration form sent to you. You may also download a voter registration form in New York State from www.elections.ny.gov. Complete, sign, and submit the form, either in person or by mail. If you have a current New York driver’s license and internet access, you can now register to vote online with the New York DMV. Visit the following website to register: https://dmv.ny.gov/more-info/electronic-voter-registration-application.

Do I have to have a Certificate of Relief from Disabilities or other documentation about my criminal history in order to register to vote?

No. You do not need to provide any documentation about your criminal history in order to register.

What address should I put on the voter registration form if I am in jail?

If you are in jail or prison awaiting grand jury action or trial, or confined after conviction for an offense other than a felony, you should register to vote in the county of your permanent address. Put your permanent home address on the registration form, not the address of the facility where you are incarcerated.

How do I vote if I’m in jail?

If you were convicted of a misdemeanor or if you were charged with a felony and are awaiting trial or disposition of your case, you may vote by absentee ballot. To get an absentee ballot, you must fill out an absentee ballot application form. You can request the application form by writing to your county board of elections or you can download one from the New York State Board of Elections website (www.elections.ny.gov). See the instructions below for writing to the board of elections; if the information you provide them in the letter is sufficient, they may consider the letter an absentee ballot application. Upon completion, your application must be mailed or delivered to your county board of elections. Once they have received your application, your county board of elections will mail your ballot to you. To vote by absentee ballot in New York State, your ballot must be postmarked on or before Election Day and must be received by the board of elections no later than seven days after Election Day.

How should I request an absentee ballot?

Request an absentee ballot by sending a letter to the Board of Elections of the county where you are registered. The letter must be received by the county board of elections no earlier than 30 days and no later than seven days before the election. The letter must contain the following information:

• the address where you registered
• the address where the ballot is to be sent
• the reason for the request
• the signature of the voter.

An absentee ballot application and your absentee ballot will then be mailed to you. The application form must be complete and mailed with your ballot. Your ballot must be postmarked no later than the day before the election. Alternatively, you may pick up an absentee ballot application from your county Board of Elections. Upon completion, applications must be mailed to your county board of elections no later than the seventh day before the election, or they may be delivered in person no later than the day before the election. You will then receive your ballot, which you must return to the board with a postmark no later than the day before the election.

If you cannot pick up your ballot, or will not be able to receive it through the mail on time, you have the right to designate someone to pick your ballot up for you as late as the day before the election. Only the person designated on your application may pick up and deliver your ballot.
